Dear All,

Date: 07/06/2019

The National Commission for Protection of Child Rights (NCPCR), set up in 2007 as a statutory body constituted under the CPCR Act, 2005, is mandated to protect, promote & defend child rights in the country. The Commission is also mandated to monitor the Right to Free & Compulsory Education Act, 2009, Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act, 2012, and Juvenile Justice (Care & Protection of Children) Act, 2015.

2.   One of the functions of the Commission is to inquire into the complaints pertaining to violation of rights of the children. In order to achieve its mandate and to reach out to more and more children across the country, NCPCR's Bench will conduct visits to take-up grievances/complaints/representations pertaining to violation of child rights. The sittings of the Bench will be organized at Division level across India which include atleast one of the 115 Aspirational Districts identified by NITI Aayog.

3.   You are requested to collaborate in this endeavour and to provide support in terms of identification of potential cases of violation of child rights in your area and mobilization them to appear before the Bench. Also, you are requested to depute volunteers for assisting the complainants in writing their complaints for submission before the Bench, ensure maximum participation to reach out to the last child, maintaining decorum, and any other assistance required by the Bench.

4.   A detailed note including schedule is annexed for your reference. In case of further information or query, you may contact the nodal person from NCPCR: Shri. Rajnikant, Technical Expert, NCPCR, Mobile: 09868009007 (email: rajnikant.ncpcr@nic.in).
