Sponsor a Child - could you help just one child ?????

No one can do everything, but a bit of your concern & support will drive the car of hope among the needy children.

You can bring a change in lives of many kids by supporting them. By helping them attain their education and protecting them from exploitation, would surely lead them towards a bright future.

The more we live the more we read, the more we read more we learn ... let them also learn supporting education materials for them. Its like equipping them to climb higher and reach out for their dreams.

It's high time to let their demands fulfilled by our support and create a space for them in this earth to live their live with dignity.

You can help by sponsoring a child by donating just Rs. 5200 every year, and enabling him / her to live with dignity. Under our initiative of "Sponsor a child" , the donor will receive regular feedback on how the money was spent and the status and updates on the sponsored child .
